THE SAILING

The Woman's Sailing Team as usual had a winning season. Captain Judy Fenner proved her weight in gold to the team. Added to their staff was a new coach, Emie McGoon, a will known international sailor.

TEAM

"Every wind has its weather" – FRANCIS BACON

The Men's Team was founded this year by Captain Brian Killeen. Under the guidance and direction of Coach Peter Della Monica the team made a few decent showings. The outgoing Captain passed the reins to Co-Captain John O'Brien for next year. This year both the Woman's and Men's Teams competed together in a couple of open meets.

Summer flowers lie on greening grass
After the heat has left.
Pink Bikinis
And bottles of suntan oil
Are once again
Locked away
And forgotten like the traces Of cotton candy Wiped from the Rose-red cheeks
Of a sunburned toddler.
Beach beauties trade in blankets
for textbooks,
College kids exchange sunglasses for sliderules
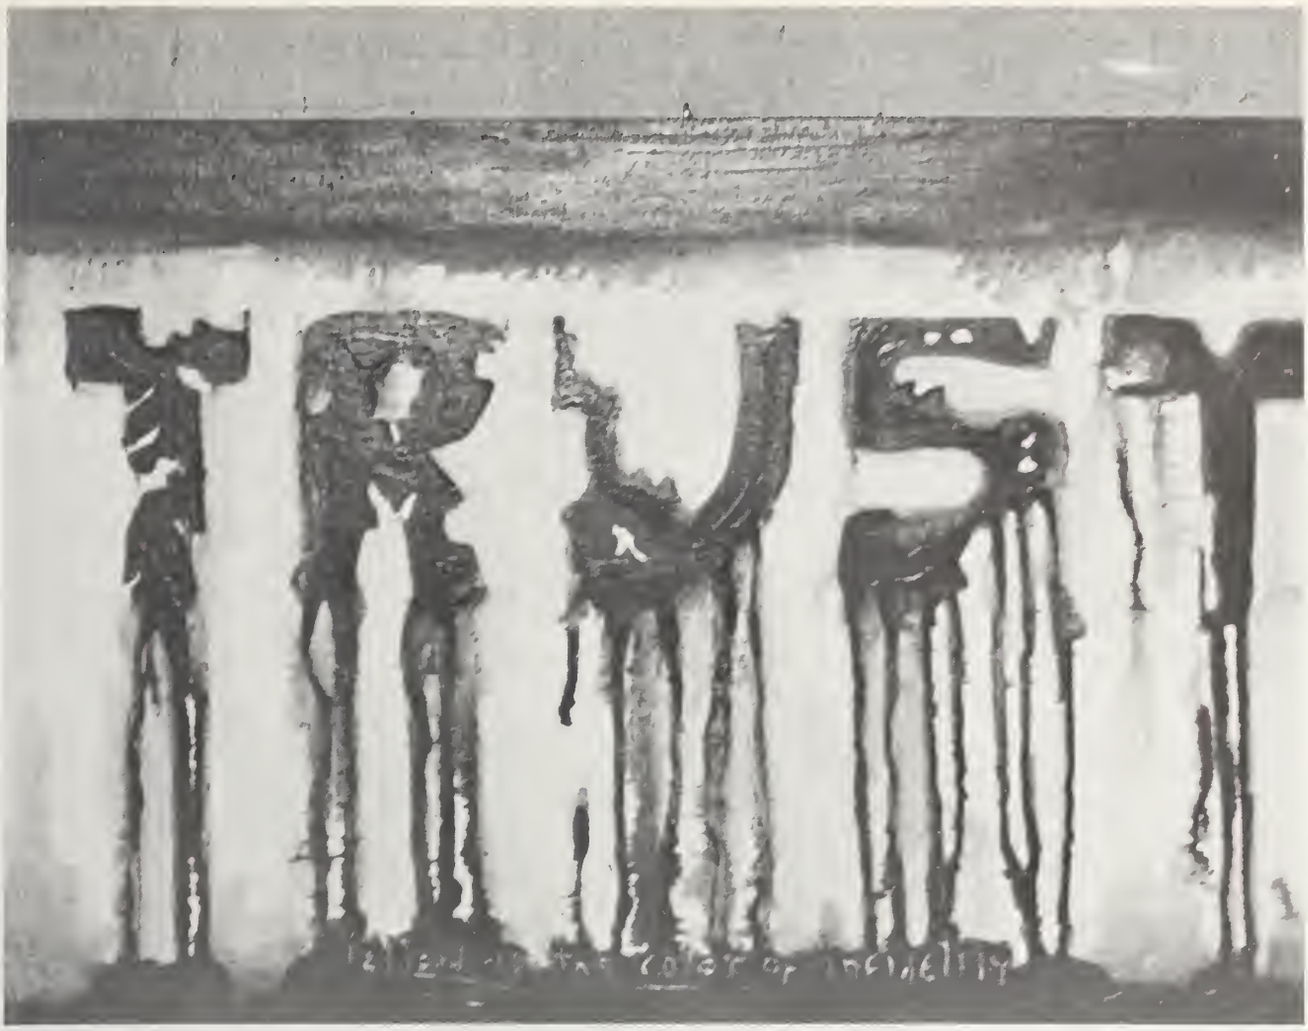
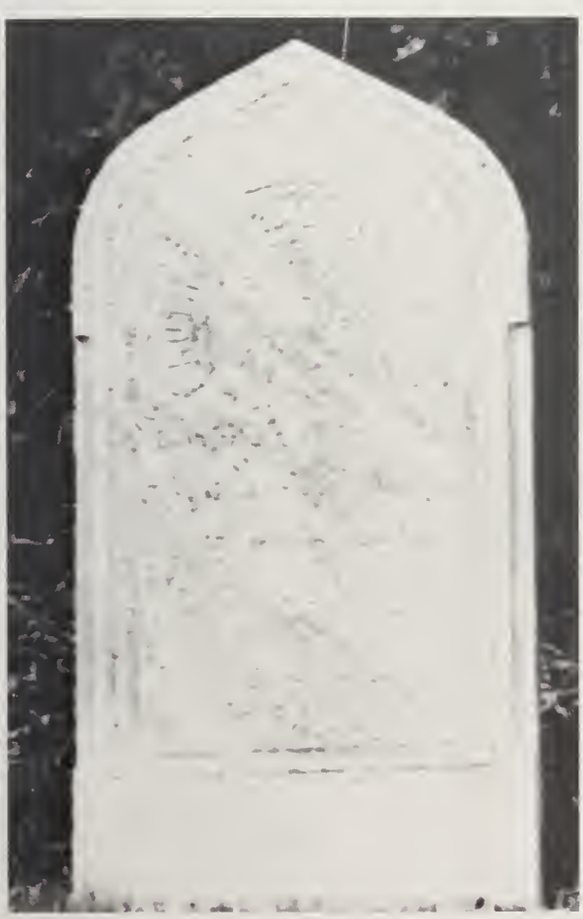
All somewhat hesitant and cautious . . .
Tired of complaining
I have my calculus class
Clutching my add-drop form
And discover the teacher I need
Is on sabbatical.

Mary Ann Michaud





THE REALIST

i know the limitations of my body, and the unintellectual grasp of people, places and things for, i stopped dreaming at 10, and my imagination is a cynical self possession of hungry fears n'd aching thoughts.

so,

it really doesn't matter if i win or lose in life today, I've tried.

Carl H. Green

Be as a page that aches for a word which speaks on a theme that is timeless
While the sun god will make for your day
Sing as a song in search of a voice that is silent
And the one God will make for your way.

Graduation Day
May 24, 1975

"Education consists not only in the sum of what a man knows, or the skill with which he can put this to his own advantage . . . a man's education must also be measured in terms of the soundness of his judgment of people and things, and in his power to understand and appreciate the needs of his fellowmen, and to be of service to them. The educated man should be so sensitive to the conditions around him that he makes it his chief endeavour to improve those conditions for the good of all."

– Kwame Nkrumah –

"Yesterday is already a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision;
but today, well lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope."

– the Sanskrit –

"Great ideas come into the world as gently as doves. Perhaps, then, if we live attentively, we shall hear, amid the uproar of empires and nations, a faint flutter of wings ... the gentle stirring of life and hope."

– Albert Camus –

ART WORK Richard A. Johns

The 1975 Yearbook Staff would also like to thank Dan Gilreath and George Jacobson our advisors, who have listened and helped us through our problems. We also thank Carol Morrow for helping us identify people; places, and things. Many thanks also to Joe Madden of Adams Studios and Joe Donovan of H. J. Keller for their much needed help in putting this book out on time. Last of all we would like to thank anyone who we have inadvertently left out along the Log Staff and the student body.
